

1. What does CMV and cCMV stand for?
 - a. Cytomegalovirus and Carried Cytomegalovirus
 - b. Cytomegalovirus and Congenital Cytomegalovirus
 - c. Cytomegalovirus and Cancerous Cytomegalovirus

2. What is the difference between CMV and cCMV?
 - a. CMV is passed from a person with CMV to a healthy person and cCMV is when CMV is passed from a mother with CMV to her unborn child.
 - b. cCMV is passed from a person with CMV to a healthy person and CMV is when CMV is passed from a mother with CMV to her unborn child.
 - c. There is no difference between CMV and cCMV.

3. How do you get CMV?
 - a. Through cat litter
 - b. Through processed meats
 - c. Through bodily fluids

4. How can you prevent CMV?
 - a. Handwashing
 - b. Not sharing food or drinks
 - c. Both a & b

5. True or False baby wipes are just as good at cleaning your hands as handwashing?
 - a. True
 - b. False

6. Which of the following are side effects associated with cCMV?
 - a. Hearing loss
 - b. Hair loss
 - c. Limb loss

7. True or False cCMV testing for infants is nationally regulated upon child birth?
 - a. True
 - b. False

8. Up until what age can you test an infant to identify if they have cCMV?
 - a. Twelve weeks
 - b. Six weeks
 - c. three weeks

9. True or false CMV always appears as a cold like symptom?
 - a. True
 - b. False

10. CMV is the one of the most common long-term medical conditions infants are born with each year. What percentage of women are aware of CMV?
- a. 59%
 - b. 29%
 - c. 9%

Level: 3.33

https://www.online-utility.org/english/readability_test_and_improve.jsp